Promotion for Department candidates

2106. DR. BAPU KALDATE:
SHRI CHATURANAN MISHRA:
SHRI RAM AWADHESH SINGH:
SHRI YALLA SESI BHUSHANA RAO:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is any provision in the recruitment rules of the Central Government for promotion of departmental candidates whose qualifying experience in the feeder cadre falls short by a fraction of such experience in terms of period thereof; and

(b) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) and (b) Normally recruitment rules in respect of posts under the Central Government do not contain any provision to the effect that departmental candidates who are short of the required eligibility service can be considered for promotion. However, in some cases, a provision is included in the recruitment rules that, if an officer eligible under the rules is considered for promotion, all persons senior to him in the grade shall also be considered notwithstanding that they may not have rendered the requisite number of years of service.

Further under the recruitment rules the Central Government also have the power to relax any of the provisions thereof including the eligibility service for promotion with respect to any class or category of persons or posts.
